

Kennett Castle or Selma Hall and the Families
Who Lived There
By: Lisa K. Gendron

Published by the Jefferson County Heritage and Historical Society

ISBN-13: 978-0578583679

The story of the pre-civil war castle built by Ferdinand Kennett along the Mississippi river in Jefferson County, Missouri. The author presents extensive research through documents, stories and full color photos to illustrate the history of the castle and the lives of those that have lived and worked on the estate from the beginning, to the present owners, Union Pacific railroad.

Available for purchase locally – $30 (add $4 if mailed)

*Email - llegendron@swbell.net

*Free pickup at the Jefferson County History Museum 6-8 p.m. Thursday nights

*Paypal online at JeffcoMoHistory.org

*Special Events throughout the county

Or online at Amazon.com $34.95 + $3.99 shipping

About the Author

In addition to her love of local history and genealogy, Lisa K. Gendron loves to sing, dance West Coast Swing with her husband, and enjoys creating mixed media art. She volunteers her time with the Jefferson County Historical Society in their museum and is also treasurer and webmaster for the group.